To whom it may concern

As Theo Keetile's karate instructor I have witnessed him grow since his arrival at Botswana Hayashi-Ha Karate Union under the Bakwadi Karate Academy in 2009. He came in as a young, eager to learn student and has evolved into a multi-disciplined individual.

Discipline is a primary lesson we teach to all our students and Theo represents that characteristic fully. This allows him to embody other traits such as being trustworthy and punctual. He got his 1st Dan Black belt in 2014 and I have gained full confidence in him to lead any training session in my presence or absence. He is always on time for training and tournament preparations making him an asset to our Academy's continued success.

Theo's hard work and dedication in training has led him to multiple championships locally and internationally, bringing home many outstanding results. Patience is a virtue in teaching as we train people of various age groups ranging from 4 years to 60 years old. This translates to him being able to effectively communicate with all students from beginner level to advanced level. Currently 3rd chasing his 4th Dan Black belt, he portrays spirits of loyalty and longevity ultimately making a leading role model to many students at our Academy.

I highly recommend you trust Theo Keetile to be part of your project or organisation to attain its highest level of potential. If you wish to contact me, do so on the address mentioned below.

Yours faithfully
